

Mr. Loomis, and it is understood that the Venezuelan authorities are quite content with the situation, and that the details given by the minister.

ALL TO BE PROMOTED.

Colonels Robert, Barr and Clous-Davis to be Adjutant General.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—It was officially announced today that Col. Henry M. Robert, engineer colonel, Col. Thomas F. Barr and Lieut. Col. John W. Clous, judge advocate general's department, would be made brigadier generals before retiring. Colonel Robert reaches the retiring age on May 2, but Gen. John M. Wilson, present chief of engineers, who does not retire until next October, generously offered to retire before that date in order that Colonel Robert might be promoted to brigadier general before he retired. This offer has been accepted by the President. Colonel Robert has been longer in the service than any other active officer of the army. He was a cadet in 1853 and entered the engineering corps in 1857, where he has served continuously. After his retirement Col. Robert will be promoted to chief of engineers. Colonel Barr will retire on June 1, and Lieut. Col. Clous on June 1. Colonel Barr was promoted to judge advocate general, Colonel Barr would retire next November and Colonel Clous would retire next December. They were appointed to their present positions by President McKinley. Colonel Barr was promoted to judge advocate general, Colonel Barr would retire next November and Colonel Clous would retire next December. They were appointed to their present positions by President McKinley.

Fourth-Class Mail Matter.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The Postoffice Department has ruled that the marks of description and other similar particulars additions to fourth-class mail matter must be confined to the wrapper or cover or tag or label accompanying such matter. The act of June 20, 1888, authorizing such additions does not mean the placing of marks on the matter itself. Postmasters throughout the country have been notified of this ruling and instructed that fourth-class matter prepared for mailing in conformity with this ruling must pay first-class postage.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS.

Appointments by the President—Governor Allen's First Report.

It has been decided not to delay the commencement of the construction of the new Department of Justice building, which Congress appropriated $1,000,000.

Judge J. M. Wilson, counsel for ex-Gov. O'Brien M. Carter, returned to Washington yesterday and visited his client at Leavenworth, Kan. He denies the report that Captain Carter will resign. He says that Captain Carter will resign. He says that Captain Carter will resign.

The first annual report on the affairs of Porto Rico, of which he is the executive, was presented to the Senate yesterday by Governor Allen. A large portion of the report deals with the formation, operation and present status of the Porto Rico government. Generally speaking, it says the island is in a prosperous condition.

The President yesterday made the following appointments: F. Alexander Stuart, of Minnesota, to be interpreter to the conference of the United States and Japan, William Vaughan, to be attorney of the United States for the Northern district of Alabama, Henry M. Cooper, to be marshal of the United States for the Eastern district of Arkansas.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes has decided in effect that a person soliciting and receiving orders for transmission described in the Internal Revenue stamp act of March 3, 1901 (regulating bucket shops), on his own account and for commission, is liable for the same as a peddler, and that a person living in another city, is required to pay the special tax and to keep the peddler's book, and to file with the collector a memorandum for each of these orders received by him.

The Navy Department has received a letter from Admiral R. B. Henshaw in command of the Asiatic station, stating his purpose to be present at the erection of a monument to Commodore Perry at the mouth of the Sagami river on July 14. The ceremony will be indicative of the kindly feeling existing between Japan and the United States. Admiral Henshaw writes that he will attend the ceremony with the Brooklyn and such other vessels as conditions at that time may enable him to take.

Losses by Fire.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 23.—Fire destroyed the plant of the Louisville Vinegar works, at Third and Broadway, to-night, and was indirectly responsible for an accident in which three men lost their lives. Three were injured. Charles Neville lost his right leg in a collision between a hook and ladder and a building. The loss on the fire is estimated at $20,000, partly covered by insurance.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Fire last night in the three-story brick building at No. 241 Jackson street, did $100,000 damage. The principal losers are the Chicago Scale Company, the Drake Machinery Company, and the American Cut Glass Company.

SPRING REALLY COMING.

Forecaster Promises Fair and Warmer Weather for Indiana.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Forecast for Wednesday and Thursday: For Ohio—Partly cloudy on Wednesday; warmer in southern portion. Thursday fair and warmer; light northerly winds. For Illinois—Fair and warmer on Wednesday; light north to east winds. Thursday fair.

For Indiana—Fair and warmer on Wednesday. Thursday fair; variable winds. Local Observations on Tuesday.

Bar. Ther. R.H. Wind. Weather. Pre. 10 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

MAKERS OF "THE QUEER"

GANG OF ALLEGED COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED AT PERU.

Tinner Blown to Pieces at Geneva—Subsides to the C. R. & M.—Investment Company in Straits.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PERU, Ind., April 23.—The police did important work this afternoon in breaking up a gang of counterfeiters. Robert L. Lohenthal, a fireman at the steel mill and a man of family, was arrested as principal, and David Holt and John Foley as assistants. They were making and passing lead quarters, half dollars and dollars.

It is asserted that Lohenthal has been doing the work for more than a year, and has had men to assist in passing the money. They were to have started a lot of bogus gold coin out next week. United States Officer Hall, of Indianapolis, appears against them. Their workroom has not yet been discovered.

Juvenile Postoffice Robber. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Montus Butler was arrested today for robbing the postoffice at Fort Branch, a few miles north of here. He was placed in jail in this city and will be tried tomorrow. He admitted he robbed the postoffice several times.

The boy is but eleven years old. His mother is at death's door. The boy takes his arrest in a matter-of-fact way and when he reached the grade of captain and was appointed to the judge advocate's department with the rank of major. He was professor at law at the Military Academy in 1895. Colonel Davis wrote a book on military law, which is understood to be a standard on military work.

Fourth-Class Mail Matter. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, April 23.—The Postoffice Department has ruled that the marks of description and other similar particulars additions to fourth-class mail matter must be confined to the wrapper or cover or tag or label accompanying such matter.

The act of June 20, 1888, authorizing such additions does not mean the placing of marks on the matter itself. Postmasters throughout the country have been notified of this ruling and instructed that fourth-class matter prepared for mailing in conformity with this ruling must pay first-class postage.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS. Appointments by the President—Governor Allen's First Report. It has been decided not to delay the commencement of the construction of the new Department of Justice building, which Congress appropriated $1,000,000.

Judge J. M. Wilson, counsel for ex-Gov. O'Brien M. Carter, returned to Washington yesterday and visited his client at Leavenworth, Kan. He denies the report that Captain Carter will resign. He says that Captain Carter will resign.

The first annual report on the affairs of Porto Rico, of which he is the executive, was presented to the Senate yesterday by Governor Allen. A large portion of the report deals with the formation, operation and present status of the Porto Rico government. Generally speaking, it says the island is in a prosperous condition.

The President yesterday made the following appointments: F. Alexander Stuart, of Minnesota, to be interpreter to the conference of the United States and Japan, William Vaughan, to be attorney of the United States for the Northern district of Alabama, Henry M. Cooper, to be marshal of the United States for the Eastern district of Arkansas.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes has decided in effect that a person soliciting and receiving orders for transmission described in the Internal Revenue stamp act of March 3, 1901 (regulating bucket shops), on his own account and for commission, is liable for the same as a peddler, and that a person living in another city, is required to pay the special tax and to keep the peddler's book, and to file with the collector a memorandum for each of these orders received by him.

The Navy Department has received a letter from Admiral R. B. Henshaw in command of the Asiatic station, stating his purpose to be present at the erection of a monument to Commodore Perry at the mouth of the Sagami river on July 14. The ceremony will be indicative of the kindly feeling existing between Japan and the United States. Admiral Henshaw writes that he will attend the ceremony with the Brooklyn and such other vessels as conditions at that time may enable him to take.

Losses by Fire. LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 23.—Fire destroyed the plant of the Louisville Vinegar works, at Third and Broadway, to-night, and was indirectly responsible for an accident in which three men lost their lives. Three were injured. Charles Neville lost his right leg in a collision between a hook and ladder and a building. The loss on the fire is estimated at $20,000, partly covered by insurance.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Fire last night in the three-story brick building at No. 241 Jackson street, did $100,000 damage. The principal losers are the Chicago Scale Company, the Drake Machinery Company, and the American Cut Glass Company.

SPRING REALLY COMING. Forecaster Promises Fair and Warmer Weather for Indiana. WASHINGTON, April 23.—Forecast for Wednesday and Thursday: For Ohio—Partly cloudy on Wednesday; warmer in southern portion. Thursday fair and warmer; light northerly winds.

For Illinois—Fair and warmer on Wednesday; light north to east winds. Thursday fair. For Indiana—Fair and warmer on Wednesday. Thursday fair; variable winds. Local Observations on Tuesday.

Bar. Ther. R.H. Wind. Weather. Pre. 10 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1901.

MAKERS OF "THE QUEER"

GANG OF ALLEGED COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED AT PERU.

Tinner Blown to Pieces at Geneva—Subsides to the C. R. & M.—Investment Company in Straits. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PERU, Ind., April 23.—The police did important work this afternoon in breaking up a gang of counterfeiters. Robert L. Lohenthal, a fireman at the steel mill and a man of family, was arrested as principal, and David Holt and John Foley as assistants. They were making and passing lead quarters, half dollars and dollars.

It is asserted that Lohenthal has been doing the work for more than a year, and has had men to assist in passing the money. They were to have started a lot of bogus gold coin out next week. United States Officer Hall, of Indianapolis, appears against them. Their workroom has not yet been discovered.

Juvenile Postoffice Robber. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Montus Butler was arrested today for robbing the postoffice at Fort Branch, a few miles north of here. He was placed in jail in this city and will be tried tomorrow. He admitted he robbed the postoffice several times.

The boy is but eleven years old. His mother is at death's door. The boy takes his arrest in a matter-of-fact way and when he reached the grade of captain and was appointed to the judge advocate's department with the rank of major. He was professor at law at the Military Academy in 1895. Colonel Davis wrote a book on military law, which is understood to be a standard on military work.

Fourth-Class Mail Matter. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, April 23.—The Postoffice Department has ruled that the marks of description and other similar particulars additions to fourth-class mail matter must be confined to the wrapper or cover or tag or label accompanying such matter.

The act of June 20, 1888, authorizing such additions does not mean the placing of marks on the matter itself. Postmasters throughout the country have been notified of this ruling and instructed that fourth-class matter prepared for mailing in conformity with this ruling must pay first-class postage.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS. Appointments by the President—Governor Allen's First Report. It has been decided not to delay the commencement of the construction of the new Department of Justice building, which Congress appropriated $1,000,000.

Judge J. M. Wilson, counsel for ex-Gov. O'Brien M. Carter, returned to Washington yesterday and visited his client at Leavenworth, Kan. He denies the report that Captain Carter will resign. He says that Captain Carter will resign.

The first annual report on the affairs of Porto Rico, of which he is the executive, was presented to the Senate yesterday by Governor Allen. A large portion of the report deals with the formation, operation and present status of the Porto Rico government. Generally speaking, it says the island is in a prosperous condition.

The President yesterday made the following appointments: F. Alexander Stuart, of Minnesota, to be interpreter to the conference of the United States and Japan, William Vaughan, to be attorney of the United States for the Northern district of Alabama, Henry M. Cooper, to be marshal of the United States for the Eastern district of Arkansas.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes has decided in effect that a person soliciting and receiving orders for transmission described in the Internal Revenue stamp act of March 3, 1901 (regulating bucket shops), on his own account and for commission, is liable for the same as a peddler, and that a person living in another city, is required to pay the special tax and to keep the peddler's book, and to file with the collector a memorandum for each of these orders received by him.

The Navy Department has received a letter from Admiral R. B. Henshaw in command of the Asiatic station, stating his purpose to be present at the erection of a monument to Commodore Perry at the mouth of the Sagami river on July 14. The ceremony will be indicative of the kindly feeling existing between Japan and the United States. Admiral Henshaw writes that he will attend the ceremony with the Brooklyn and such other vessels as conditions at that time may enable him to take.

Losses by Fire. LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 23.—Fire destroyed the plant of the Louisville Vinegar works, at Third and Broadway, to-night, and was indirectly responsible for an accident in which three men lost their lives. Three were injured. Charles Neville lost his right leg in a collision between a hook and ladder and a building. The loss on the fire is estimated at $20,000, partly covered by insurance.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Fire last night in the three-story brick building at No. 241 Jackson street, did $100,000 damage. The principal losers are the Chicago Scale Company, the Drake Machinery Company, and the American Cut Glass Company.

SPRING REALLY COMING. Forecaster Promises Fair and Warmer Weather for Indiana. WASHINGTON, April 23.—Forecast for Wednesday and Thursday: For Ohio—Partly cloudy on Wednesday; warmer in southern portion. Thursday fair and warmer; light northerly winds.

For Illinois—Fair and warmer on Wednesday; light north to east winds. Thursday fair. For Indiana—Fair and warmer on Wednesday. Thursday fair; variable winds. Local Observations on Tuesday.

Bar. Ther. R.H. Wind. Weather. Pre. 10 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

Following is a comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation for April 23:

Mean Temp. Pre. 11 a.m. 30.4 64 64 Partly Cloudy. 10 p.m. 30.11 67 64 Cloudy. 10 Maximum temperature, 33; minimum temperature, 41.

THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1901.

MAKERS OF "THE QUEER"

GANG OF ALLEGED COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED AT PERU.

Tinner Blown to Pieces at Geneva—Subsides to the C. R. & M.—Investment Company in Straits. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PERU, Ind., April 23.—The police did important work this afternoon in breaking up a gang of counterfeiters. Robert L. Lohenthal, a fireman at the steel mill and a man of family, was arrested as principal, and David Holt and John Foley as assistants. They were making and passing lead quarters, half dollars and dollars.

It is asserted that Lohenthal has been doing the work for more than a year, and has had men to assist in passing the money. They were to have started a lot of bogus gold coin out next week. United States Officer Hall, of Indianapolis, appears against them. Their workroom has not yet been discovered.

Juvenile Postoffice Robber. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Montus Butler was arrested today for robbing the postoffice at Fort Branch, a few miles north of here. He was placed in jail in this city and will be tried tomorrow. He admitted he robbed the postoffice several times.

The boy is but eleven years old. His mother is at death's door. The boy takes his arrest in a matter-of-fact way and when he reached the grade of captain and was appointed to the judge advocate's department with the rank of major. He was professor at law at the Military Academy in 1895. Colonel Davis wrote a book on military law, which is understood to be a standard on military work.

Fourth-Class Mail Matter. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, April 23.—The Postoffice Department has ruled that the marks of description and other similar particulars additions to fourth-class mail matter must be confined to the wrapper or cover or tag or label accompanying such matter.

The act of June 20, 1888, authorizing such additions does not mean the placing of marks on the matter itself. Postmasters throughout the country have been notified of this ruling and instructed that fourth-class matter prepared for mailing in conformity with this ruling must pay first-class postage.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS. Appointments by the President—Governor Allen's First Report. It has been decided not to delay the commencement of the construction of the new Department of Justice building, which Congress appropriated $1,000,000.

Judge J. M. Wilson, counsel for ex-Gov. O'Brien M. Carter, returned to Washington yesterday and visited his client at Leavenworth, Kan. He denies the report that Captain Carter will resign. He says that Captain Carter will resign.

The first annual report on the affairs of Porto Rico, of which he is the executive, was presented to the Senate yesterday by Governor Allen. A large portion of the report deals with the formation, operation and present status of the Porto Rico government. Generally speaking, it says the island is in a prosperous condition.

The President yesterday made the following appointments: F. Alexander Stuart, of Minnesota, to be interpreter to the conference of the United States and Japan, William Vaughan, to be attorney of the United States for the Northern district of Alabama, Henry M. Cooper, to be marshal of the United States for the Eastern district of Arkansas.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes has decided in effect that a person soliciting and receiving orders for transmission described in the Internal Revenue stamp act of March 3, 1901 (regulating bucket shops), on his own account and for commission, is liable for the same as a peddler, and that a person living in another city, is required to pay the special tax and to keep the peddler's book, and to file with the collector a memorandum for each of these orders received by him.

The Navy Department has received a letter from Admiral R. B. Henshaw in command of the Asiatic station, stating his purpose to be present at the erection of a monument to Commodore Perry at the mouth of the Sagami river on July 14. The ceremony will be indicative of the kindly feeling existing between Japan and the United States. Admiral Henshaw writes that he will attend the ceremony with the Brooklyn and such other vessels as conditions at that time may enable him to take.

Losses by Fire. LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 23.—Fire destroyed the plant of the Louisville Vinegar works, at Third and Broadway, to-night, and was indirectly responsible for an accident in which three men lost their lives. Three were injured. Charles Neville lost his right leg in a collision between a hook and ladder and a building. The loss on the fire is estimated at $20,000, partly covered by insurance.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Fire last night in the three-story brick building at No. 241 Jackson street, did $100,000 damage. The principal losers are the Chicago Scale Company, the Drake Machinery Company, and the American Cut Glass Company.

SPRING REALLY COMING